Branding Headline

I am a multidisciplinary designer and creative producer who is currently expanding my expertise in digital media marketing to enhance my knowledge and stay up-to-date with industry trends. I worked at a small creative company that creates interactive content in Tokyo for more than seven years, where I gained experience in planning and project management for exhibitions and events, as well as UX/UI design and video production for museums. My strengths include planning, leading cross-functional teams, organizing information to ensure projects progress smoothly, and proficiency in design software such as Adobe Creative Suite.
